LOMITA SOCIAL CENTER TO BECOME POOLHALL

Sleepy Driver Hits Light Pole; Suffers Cuts

The next time Roy F. Shay of the Brighton Hotel gets sleepy while driving he will pull off to the side of the road and take a snooze.

He drowsed at the wheel early Sunday morning while driving on Carson street in county territory outside of Torrance and the next thing he knew his car had struck a light pole and he was bleeding from cuts on both hands and the right leg.

Shay was treated at Torrance Memorial hospital for his injuries and then allowed to go to his hotel and complete his sleep.

Townsend Club Activities

By Mrs. Beth Paige

No meeting is scheduled to night as this club is invited to be present with other clubs at the District convention being held this evening at the South Vermont headquarters. As many as possible are urged to be present. More new members were received last Thursday evening and more we are told are coming within the next two weeks. Frank Shields put on an auction stunt all his own last Thursday. Even a bride and groom present did not escape as the "object of his affections."

Next Thursday evening, March 30, is our birthday party. We understand there are six to be toasted at the birthday table. For their and the club's enjoyment Mrs. Paige of the Music committee will present the following local artists: Donna Hatfield, Shirley Carr, Beverly Wernett, Bob Young, Helen Faye, Betty Jo Moore, Janet Lewellen, Cecilia Bidwell and Joyce Martini. They will present a Jarabe or Mexican hat dance, soft shoe dance, a military dance and tap dancing. Miss Barbara Whittaker will play piano solos, Bob Crandell, violin solos, and there will be vocal solos. These pupils are from the Torrance Conservatory of Music, under the management of Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Hatfield, and will be supervised by their dancing teacher, Miss Virginia Crandell.
